CPED Offers Discounts to WHA Members

WHA's Health Care Leadership Academy partner, Wisconsin School of Business Center for Professional & Executive Development (CPED), is offering exclusive discounts on their educational programming for WHA members only. This programming centers around the themes of Project Management, DEI and Inclusion, and foundational classes for mid-level management.

If you are interested in learning more about these discounts, please contact us at education@wha.org.

Discounts are effective now through the end of June 2024.
