8:30 - 9:15 am Creating a Safe, Healing Environment for All: A Nursing Leadership Imperative

*Mary Beth Kingston, PhD, RN, FAAN
Executive Vice President, CNO, Advocate Health*

During this session, Mary Beth will discuss key factors that influenced her leadership journey and her work to address violence in healthcare settings. Violence in healthcare settings remains a top priority for nursing leaders as evidenced by the findings in the 2020-2024 AONL Longitudinal Nursing Leadership Insight Survey. We're continuing to learn more about successful strategies to prevent and mitigate violence and injury, including training, behavioral health emergency response teams (BERT), duress alarms and access management, but less attention has been focused on incorporating patient-centered approaches. Promising practices to create an environment that promotes healing and compassion for all will also be shared followed by time for Q &A.

9:15 - 10:00 am Courageous Leadership

April Hanson, MSN, RN, Group President, Aya Healthcare

In this interactive session, leaders will explore the role of adaptability in navigating the shifts happening all around us, learn how to push through the messy middle of change, and devise a personal action plan for growth personally and professionally.

10:00 - 10:15 am Break

10:15 - 11:30 am The Complaint Free Workplace: How to Turn Complainers into Collaborators

Joshua Routh, Speaker, Performer, Author, Corporate Trainer and Talent Agency Owner

In this engaging, inspiring, and humorous presentation, you'll discover how to recognize the motivation behind complaints and, most importantly, how to redirect these negative complaints into positive collaboration. It's vital that team members learn to recognize the hidden emotional need behind complaints and deal with them rather than being side-tracked and dragged down by all the griping.

11:30 am - 12:00 pm Prize Drawings

12:00 pm Convention Closing
Dennise Lavrenz, WONL President
