WHA Welcomes New Employee, Erika Quamme

Erika Quamme joined WHA as receptionist/office assistant on July 1, 2024. She brings a wealth of experience in the health care sector, having previously worked in care facilities and clinics.

Erika has a strong background in patient care and administrative support, which will be invaluable in ensuring our front desk operations run smoothly and efficiently. She has demonstrated excellent organizational skills, attention to detail and a warm, welcoming demeanor that aligns perfectly with our commitment to providing excellent service to our members and visitors.

Welcome, Erika!
