Wisconsin Hospitals State PAC & Conduit 2025 Fundraising Campaign Kicks Off
First contributor list to be published next week

The Wisconsin Hospitals State PAC & Conduit officially launched its 2025 fundraising campaign last month, continuing its mission to support strong, effective advocacy for Wisconsin hospitals and health systems. The campaign began with a special breakfast for early contributors held prior to WHA's Advocacy Day on April 9 in Madison.

This year's fundraising goal is $350,000. The campaign runs through the calendar year and early momentum is key to reaching this target.

The first list of 2025 contributors will be published in next week's edition of The Valued Voice. If you haven't yet made your contribution, now is the perfect time to join your peers in supporting this vital effort.

"We're excited to kick off our best year of advocacy and engagement," said WHA Advocacy Committee Chair David Hartberg. "Every contribution—no matter its size—is important as it helps ensure that the voice of Wisconsin's hospitals remains strong, unified and heard. I ask everyone to make their contribution for 2025 today."
