

Vol. 66, Issue 16

Thursday, April 21, 2022

WHA Wisconsin Rural Health Conference Breakout Sessions Announced

Engaging topics, expert speakers offer unique learning opportunities

A full agenda and registration information is now available for the WHA Wisconsin Rural Health Conference taking place June 15-17, 2022, at the KI Convention Center in Green Bay. The deadline to register for this WHA Wisconsin Rural Health Conference is June 1.

In addition to compelling general session speakers and keynote presentations, this year's conference touts an impressive breakout session line-up:

The Problem is Poverty

Kurt Mosley, Merritt Hawkins

Ransomware: Are you protected?

Russell Ciezki, Heartland Business Systems

Board Governance: Insights into Trustee Roles and Responsibilities (Board of Directors track)

Ben Schmitz and Todd Kenney, BKD

Maintaining Relevancy as a Rural Hospital in the Face of the New Realities of Healthcare

Kerry Swanson, Erdman

Full Disclosure: Surprise Billing and Hospital Price Transparency Legal Update

Lori Wink, Lisa Lucido and Ben Fee, Hall Render

Health Care Compliance for Leaders and Beyond

Stacy Gerber Ward, von Briesen

Strategies to Reduce Labor Needs and Keep Up with the Demand for Health Care

Cindy Van Asten and Chris Kenyon, M3

Identifying and Improving Health Disparities in Rural Wisconsin Using EHR Data

Jennifer Weiss, MD and Abbey Harburn, Wisconsin Collaborative for Healthcare Quality

Refocusing Leadership Teams on Strategy

Robert Zontag, Wipfli

Access the full conference agenda here.

Questions about this conference or any other WHA education opportunity can be directed to education@wha.org.