Did you know???

WHA executives are regularly featured in the media and as presenters at annual gatherings of physician leaders, nurse leaders, health care finance leaders, and human resource professionals in Wisconsin, as well as for the Wisconsin Chapter of ACHE.

Keeping your leadership team and board of trustees educated and current on all things health care is one of your many responsibilities.

One easy way to accomplish this is to include a Wisconsin Hospital Association (WHA) speakers bureau member on the agenda of one of your regular meetings or as part of your annual leadership or Board retreat.

WHA staff have expertise in a broad range of health care topics, issues and initiatives, and can be a valuable addition to your Board or leadership meeting agendas.
