

WHA 2022 Advocacy Day In Review

For those who attended WHA's Advocacy Day on March 23 and for those who were unable to participate, here's a recap of the event's highlights. While speakers and attendees engaged virtually again this year, the nearly 1,000 participants made strong connections with elected leaders and shared important information critical to the success of hospitals and health systems in Wisconsin.

This story originally appeared in the April 07, 2022 edition of WHA Newsletter